THE GRANDE DAME OF BOUTIQUE HOTELS

Opened in 1925, Hotel Locarno is Rome's most storied hotel, a literary legend, and a rare city hideaway. Historic estate cum high-end boutique hotel, it has an unbreakable bond with the world of art and culture, and it's known for regularly welcoming celebrities, artists, film-makers, and unforgettable voyagers.

Housed in two early-20th-century twin buildings connected by a garden, the 49 room hotel is a sophisticated retreat within walking distance of Piazza del Popolo, in an artsy neighborhood, and surrounded by a growing cultural scene of independent retail. The interiors were carefully restored and reimagined with a retro-classic sense of style, collecting Art Deco furniture and fixtures as well as just the right amount of antiques, and a dash of urban hipness.

The Bar at Hotel Locarno is a timeless and evocative space. Together with urban oasis of the secret garden, surrounded by lush greenery and open for year-round gatherings, is a classical Roman hot spot. The cocktail's program, created by acclaimed mixologist Nicholas Pinna offers an exceptional experience at every drink. Open from 7 am to 1am daily, the bar and the hotel restaurant have something for every taste at every time of day, serving breakfast, lunch, and dinner to hotel guests and Rome locals alike.

The culinary program, helmed by chef Domenico Smargiassi and his brigade, offers a seasonal menu of gourmet delights, mid-Italian classics reimagined as irresistible interpretations and hyper-local dishes with some reminiscences of orientalism, combining a passion for traditional Italian cuisine with daringly modern flair and imagination.

Hotel Locarno coined the formula of an "anytime-anywhere" dining experience, giving access to reserve a table from late morning to late night, in every possible scenery spot all over the property.

The heartbreaking view makes the rooftop terrace the perfect setting for an easy luncheon, a more formal-yet-comfortable daytime gathering, and an intimate location to enjoy a sunset menu into late-night dining, or just a restorative moment against the backdrop of Trinità dei Monti skyline.
